Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
13*th* September 1875.

No. 338. Read the following letter from W. C. FURNIVALL, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (Railway), to Major-General G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department (Railway), dated Simla, 3rd September 1875, No. 2,190 R.:—

In returning the tracing received with your No. 2,304, dated the 9th August 1875, showing the details of Handyside's patent disc wheels and the manner in which they failed on the Madras Railway, I am directed to say that these wheels were not known to the Government of India by the name of "Handyside's." They are considered by the Government of India dangerous for use.
