Death at Station.

MAHAZERNAMAH tendered by the undersigned and marked underneath persons. The deceased individual came in the day train which came from Madras on the 7th (yesterday). The deceased was very sickly. The body appeared very much tired and much reduced. The deceased died only from sickness, and there are no marks of violence on his person. The deceased was male, aged about 40. His place of residence, name or caste is not known. Two pairs of earrings of gold set with pearl valued at Rupees 12, and an ear ornament valued at Rupees 1-4-0 were found on his person. There was no other property. This is what we have to say on Mahazir.

(Signed) MOONESAWMY, Head Constable of Jollarpett.
