Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 29th September 1875.

No. 604. Read the following endorsement of the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 21st September 1875, No. 526 — From R. B. ELWIN, Esq., Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, to Lieutenant-Colonel J. H. M. SHAW-STEWART, R.E., Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 16th September 1875, No. 966.

I HAVE the honor to enclose, for the information of Government, a copy of paragraph 9 of the Secretary's letter, No. 558, dated the 13th of August 1875, in which it is stated that, upon the recommendation of their Consulting Physician, the Board have granted Mr. W. Barton Wright, Locomotive Superintendent, a further extension of his leave, without pay, to allow of his leaving England about the middle of October, and thus avoid the severe heat he would encounter in the Red Sea were he to start earlier.

EXTRACT from a letter from the Board of Directors, No. 517, dated 26th February 1874, paragraph 5.

I AM directed to inform you that the Board, on the recommendation of the Consulting Physician, have granted to Mr. W. Barton
Mr. Wright's sick leave extended on half-pay.

months' extension of his sick leave. As an exceptional case, and in consideration of his long and valuable service, and the time he has devoted, and still will be required to give here, to matters relating to the Company's business, the Directors have, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, complied with Mr. Wright's application to be allowed to draw, while at home, the full amount of his sick leave pay; and also his request that the allowance may be continued for the six months during which his leave has been extended.

EXTRACT from a letter from the Secretary, Madras Railway Company, No. 558, dated London, the 13th August 1875.

PARAGRAPH 9.—On the recommendation of the Consulting Physician, the Board have granted Mr. W. Barton Wright's leave further extended. to Mr. W. Barton Wright, Locomotive Superintendent, a further extension of his leave, without pay, to allow of his proceeding to India about the middle of October, and thus avoid the severe heat he would encounter in the Red Sea were he to start earlier.

SUBMITTED for the information of Government in continuation of this office endorsement, No. 211, dated 1st April 1874, embodied in G. O., No. 1,234, dated 8th May 1874.
