Rev^d Sir

In reference to the enclosed Report made by the Charge Officer & myself after inspection of the Cursewankum Burial Ground on October 11. 1875, I have the honor to request that you will beg the District Officer to put these repairs in hand as early as possible.

I have the honor to be,

Venerable Sir

Your obedient servant

A. C. Saylor

Chaplain of Wepary.

Purwarum Burial Ground

The compound wall requires to be whitewashed and the plaster repaired in several places. It is out of the perpendicular in several places but is not likely to fall down.

The two rooms at the entrance require to be whitewashed and the doors and windows painted. Nothing else appears to be required.
