Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 22nd November 1875.

No 504 Read the following endorsement of the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 16th November 1875, No 624 —

From R B ELWIN, Esq, Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, to Lieutenant-Colonel J. H M SHAW-STEWART, R.E, Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 12th November 1875, No 1,133

With reference to the enclosed extract, paragraphs 7, 8 and 9 from my letter to the Secretary, No 1,167, dated the 27th July 1875, and to paragraph 12 (copy enclosed) of the Board's letter, No 559, of the 8th October 1875, I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to communicate to me the sanction of Government to the promotion of Mr G E Smith from the grade of second to that of first-class Assistant Engineer, with effect from the 8th October 1875, the date of the Board's letter

2 An application in the usual form is annexed

Extract from a letter from the Agent and Manager, to the Secretary, Madras Railway Company dated Madras, the 27th July 1875, No 1,167

Promotion of Mr G E Smith, from the grade of second to that of first class Assistant Engineer

Para 7 I beg to enclose, for the favorable consideration of the Directors, copy of a letter from the Chief Engineer, No 515, of the 17th July 1875, in which he recommends the promotion of Mr G E Smith from the grade of second to that of first-class Assistant Engineer

8 Mr Anderson writes as follows —

"Mr Smith entered the Company's service as a fourth-class Engineer on 20th November 1866, was promoted to the rank of third-class on 20th November 1868, and to that of second-class on 28th April 1871

"He was employed on construction of the North-West Line up to December 1870, was in charge of 3rd Division, South-West Line, from April to December 1871, and of the 1st Division, North-West Line, from December 1871 to February 1873, he was then appointed to the 3rd Division, North-West Line, for a short period, and was afterwards again transferred to the 1st Division, North-West Line, of which he remained in charge up to December 1873 He then proceeded to England on a year's furlough, and returned to duty in December 1874, from which date he has been in charge of the 1st Division, North-West Line

"Mr Smith has always exhibited great energy and zeal in the performance of his work, and has given me entire satisfaction in the manner he has carried on his duties during the whole period of his service"

9 I am happy to be able to endorse what Mr Anderson states as to Mr Smith's energy and zeal, and I trust that the Directors will consider that the length and nature of his services entitle him to the promotion for which he is now recommended
