RAILWAY, No. 6.

Sir,—The Quartermaster-General of the Madras Army has represented that if through-booking be introduced and troop trains run through as far as Shahabad without change of carriage, the rest-house sanctioned for Sholapore may be dispensed with.

2. From inquiry of the Madras Railway authorities it would appear that it has been arranged with the Great Indian Peninsula Railway that troop trains composed of carriages belonging to either Company shall run through between Ghooty and Shahabad whenever required. Under these circumstances, I am directed by the Governor in Council to suggest the discontinuance of building operations in connection with the rest-house at Sholapore.

I have the honor to be,
