No. 323. Read the following letter from the Officiating Superintending Engineer,
Godavery, dated 27th November 1875, No. 2,572 :—

ABSTRACT.—Submitting an application for furlough from Mr. J. W. Martin, Assistant Engineer.

No. 324. ORDER THEREON, 18th December 1875, No. 3,560.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 23.

In order to avoid inconvenience to the public service Mr. Martin will be required to postpone taking preparatory leave previous to furlough until after he shall have sent in his Range Accounts up to the end of the official year; with which view arrangements will be made for his relief early in April. Meanwhile the gazetting of leave will be deferred.
