Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 2nd March 1875

Read the following papers —

No. 46. From Lieutenant-Colonel C S HEARN, Inspector-General of Police, to Colonel G W. WALKER, R E, Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 30th October 1874, No 4,273

WITH reference to G O, No 978, dated 10th June 1874, Financial Department, I have the honor to submit, for * No 461, dated 1st July 1874 consideration of Government, a letter* in original received from the Superintendent of Police, Malabar, and request that sanction may be accorded to the proposal to hand over the portion of the building at Goodalore (Wynaad) hitherto occupied as a station-house on the spot to the Police Inspector there, in order to afford an increased accommodation which is at present considered insufficient

2. It will be observed that the building in question was originally constructed in 1866 67,† for the purpose of * Vide G O, No 64, dated 8th January 1866, serving as Police Station as well as In-Public Works Department spector's house A separate building for the former having been recently provided in the new Cutcherry, Colonel Davies recommends the transfer of the part lately occupied as a station to the Inspector, from whom a monthly rent of Rupees 3 is now recovered by him for the present accommodation.

3. I beg also to recommend that the entire building under reference should be handed over to the Public Works Department for use as a Police Inspector's bungalow at Goodalore, as is reported to have been done at Vythery and Manantoddy, the rent as fixed for improved building being paid to that department.

From Major A M DAVIES, Superintendent of Police, Malabar, to Lieutenant-Colonel C S HEARN, Inspector-General of Police, dated Calicut, 1st July 1874, No 461 —Through the Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Southern Range

I HAVE the honor, with reference to G O, No 978, dated 10th June 1874, to request sanction to hand over the rooms at the building hitherto occupied as a station-house at Goodalore (Wynaad) to the Inspector who occupies a portion of the building, he will then have fair accommodation

2 I further recommend that the whole building be handed over to the Department Public Works as a Police Inspector's bungalow, in a similar way to that adopted at Vythery and Manantoddy, the Inspector paying rent to the Department Public Works, and that department executing the repairs of the building

3 The building was erected in 1866 at a cost of Rupees 2,359, and the iron roof, originally put on, has since been covered with tiles, the half iron barred doors may be utilized in one of the new stations

No. 47. From Lieutenant-Colonel R B KENNEDY, Special Executive
