Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 19th March 1875.

No. 486. Read the following letter from Major J. BEATTY, R.E., District Engineer, Godavery, to Colonel G. W WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Dowlaishweram, 2nd March 1875, No. 3,728. —

ADVERTING to G. O., No. 319, of the 4th instant, I regret having omitted to report more fully on Bremmiah's qualifications, which seemed to me at the time unnecessary in the case of such an old servant of Government. As stated in my former letter, he was employed in the Printing Office for twenty-four years.

2 I have, therefore, now the honor to report that Bremmiah has a good knowledge of English, writes a fair hand, as will be seen by this letter which is in his handwriting, and is a useful, willing, office servant. He is now performing the duties of Goomastah and Writer, assisting the Accountant both in accounts and correspondence. I consider him well qualified for the post he holds, and trust that, in consideration of this and of his long service, Government will be pleased to exempt him from the usual test.

No. 487. ORDER THEREON, 19th March 1875, No. 773.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 30.

UNDER all the circumstances of the case as set forth in this letter and the papers recorded with G. O., No. 319, dated 4th February 1875, and looking to the length of service and uniformly good character maintained by Gondabatula Bremmiah, His Excellency the Governor in Council sanctions his special exemption from passing the Uncovenanted Service Examination.
