19th March 1875.*

No 489      Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel J. H. M. SHAW-STEWART, R E, Consulting Engineer for Railways, to Colonel G. W. WALKER, R E, Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 25th February 1875, No. 122.—

ADVERTING to the Proceedings of Government noted in the margin, I have the honor to state that I learn from the Madras Railway authorities that, during the last four months, only one Government Department has been brought under the operation of the credit note system, viz, the Public Works Workshops. The accompanying list, drawn up by the Company's Chief Auditor, gives the names of some forty-five Government officials who have open accounts with the Madras Railway.

2. It is a matter of considerable importance that the credit note system should be extended to all Departments of Government which have open accounts with the Railway Companies, and there can be no room for doubt that it was the intention of the Government that this should be carried into effect without delay. I beg that such instructions may be issued as may be necessary to ensure strict conformity, on the part of all departments, with the orders of Government in respect to the credit note system of payment for earnings by rail.
