Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
23rd March 1875.

No. 563. Read the following letter from T. MOSS, Esq., Controller of Public Works Accounts, to Colonel G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 8th March 1875, No. 10,752.—

- Copy of the following letter forwarded to Government for orders.
- On the 8th February last the District Engineer was informed that the total amount of bills for contingent charges received up to that date was Rupees 915-10-6, or Rupees 75-10-6 in excess of the sanctioned allotment of Rupees 840 for the Godavery District.
 - Since these, additional bills amounting in the aggregate to Rupees 73-12-0 have been received, and other bills may be expected before the end of the current month.
 - Last year Government were pleased to authorize the cost of Medical Stores being treated as an exceptional charge, and if such an arrangement be sanctioned for the current year, in respect to the charges incurred* for Medical Stores and Professional Papers, the sanctioned allotment will be, it is presumed, as pointed out by the District Engineer, sufficient to meet the ordinary contingent charges for 1874-75.

From Major J. BEATTY, R.E., District Engineer, Godavery, to T. MOSS, Esq., Controller of Public Works Accounts, dated Dowlaishweram, 25th February 1875, No. 3,651.

With reference to your letter, No. 1,000, dated 8th instant, regarding the excess over the contingent grant of this district for the current official year, I have the honor to observe that

Total grant for the District	Rs. 1000 0 0
Amount of charges shown in the Controller's letter	915 10 6
Do do do	640 0 0
Value of Medical Stores charged in No 1 Range	170 5 2
Bill for November 1874	24 13 9
Do do in December 1874
Value of Professional Papers sanctioned in G. O. No 1,878, of 24th July 1873, charged in District Engineer's office bill for November 1874	40 8 0
	235 10 11
Balance available for Expenditure in January and February 1875	679 15 7

915-10-6 shown in your letter under reference, there will be no excess; but on the contrary a balance of Rupees 160-0-5 available for expenditure in January and February 1875, which amount will be quite sufficient for those months.

2. The purchase of Professional Papers on Indian Engineering was authorized in G. O. No. 1,878, of 24th July 1873, and the charges for Medical Stores is an annual one, both of which it is presumed, were never intended to be met from the grant for contingencies allowed for this district, which in itself is insufficient to cover the cost of contingencies of this office.

No. 564. ORDER THEREON, 23rd March 1875, No. 816.

ACCOUNT, No. 41.
