Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 4th January 1875.

No. 17. Read the following endorsement of the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 8th December 1874, No 741 —

From R. B ELWIN, Esq , Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, to Lieutenant-Colonel J H. M SHAW-STEWART, R E, Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 30th November 1874, No 1,062.

I HAVE the honor to forward, herewith, two copies of a book of General Instructions which has been compiled from the Circulars, issued from time to time in the Traffic Department by Mr. Moss, the Deputy Traffic Manager.

2. Mr Church states that the compilation of this book has occupied many of Mr. Moss' hours of relaxation, and that the work has been found exceedingly useful as a book of reference by all employés in the Traffic Department. I am informed that industry of this kind is always specially recognized in the Government service, and, with reference to the conversation I had with you in my office this morning, I request that you will be so good as to apply to Government for sanction to disburse the sum of Rupees 300 to Mr. Moss as an acknowledgment of this service.

SUBMITTED for the favorable consideration of Government.

2. A copy of Mr. Moss' compilation is enclosed* for inspection. No trouble seems to have been spared in preparing the volume, and it is certain to be of great use to all members of the Traffic Department.

* Return requested.
