No 521 Read the following letter from Major W. ROBERTSON, Assistant Inspector-General of Police, to Major-General G W WALKER, R E, Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 10th June 1876, No 2,692 —

I HAVE the honor to submit, for early sanction of Government, three rough plans and three estimates, amounting to Rs 170, together with a letter* in original received from the Superintendent of Police, North Arcot, for reconstruction by departmental agency of the station-houses noted in the margin in the same district

* No 428, dated 31st May 1876

		Rs
1	Station-house at Pulput	50
1	do at Royelchervoo	60
1	do at Cudalady	60
	Total	170

2 Funds are available from the Department of Public Works Budget Grant† of the year

3 The works have been included in the lists approved in G O, No. 3,610, dated 24th December 1875, Public Works Department.

4 The first two buildings were constructed by contractors under direction of the Magistrate in 1864-65 at costs of Rupees 125 and 60 respectively. The last station-house was erected by Police Department in 1866-67 and 1867-68 at a cost of Rs 150. The buildings are reported to be in such a bad state as to require immediate reconstruction

5 The documents were not forwarded earlier, owing to uncertainty as to source of funds as well as to necessity of reference to the district to obtain complete information for submission.

Official memorandum from Captain H W H COX, Superintendent of Police, North Arcot, to Major W ROBERTSON, Assistant Inspector-General of Police, dated Chittore, 31st May 1876, No 428

CHIEF Office memorandum, No. 2,166, dated 10th instant
The rough plans of the station-houses are herewith submitted

2. The station-houses at Pulput and Royelchervoo were erected in 1864-65 by contractors under the direction of the Magistrates from funds allotted for Police buildings in that year. Rupees 125 were spent for Pulput Station and Rupees 60 for that at Royelchervoo. The station-house at Cudalady was erected in 1866-67 and 1867-68 from the Police grant at a cost of Rupees 150 by this department. The work was sanctioned by G O, No 1,908, dated 7th December 1866. The back wall of the Pulput Station-house has given way. The walls of Royalchervoo Station are riddled by white ants. Cudalady Station-house is almost in ruins.

3. The balance of Rupees 25 may be spent for the repair of other stations, as many of them in the district need repair.
