Malabar Distt. Engr's Office
Camp Lacharia 9th June 1876

From

The District Engineer, Malabar.

To

The Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, Madras.

Sir

Mr. Harris in his letter to 224, dated 21st March last to your address intimated to you that the Ernaad Range Officer has made Calicut his Head Quarters temporarily for want of a building at Mala-param, as the Examines, P. & A. Accounts, objects to the above arrangement in auditing Captain Bailey's travelling allowance in the absence of your approval.
They that an order approving of the arrangement may be passed.

2. As Captain Bailey has now charge of the Calicut Range as well as Ernaad of course there will be no room for objection during the time that that arrangement continues.

I have the honor to be Your most obed^{ent} servant

W. B. Kennedy Esq. Lt. Col.

District Engineer, Malabar.
