Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 26th January 1876.

No 433 Read the following Circular from the Government of India in the Public Works Department, (Civil Works—Buildings,) dated Fort William, 14th January 1876, No 7 P W. —

Provision of servants' houses in connection with Churches

Read—

Letter No 3,216, dated the 16th August 1875, from the Government of the Punjab

OBSERVATIONS—In this letter the Government of the Punjab bring to notice that more than one application has been received for servants' houses in connection with Churches, and, as there are no rules in the Public Works Department Code on the subject, a general ruling is asked for

RESOLUTION—The Government of India having given the matter consideration, directs that one house only for the chowkeedar or resident bearer may be built. In cases, however, where the church is distant from the bazaar, and where special grounds are shown, accommodation may be provided for other duly authorized servants, but such further accommodation will be limited to shelter for day use only

2 These houses should, when practicable, be adjoining to, and not within the church compounds, but when within them they should be erected in keeping with the other church buildings

The Governments of Madras, Bombay, Bengal, the North Western Provinces and the Punjab in the Public Works Department
The Chief Commissioners of Oudh, Central Provinces, British Burmah, Mysore and Coorg, and Assam
The Resident, Hyderabad
The Agents of the Governor General for Central India and Rajpootana
The Superintendent of Port Blair and Chief Commissioner, Andaman and Nicobar Islands
The Inspector General of Military Works

ORDER—Ordered that this Resolution be communicated to the Governments, Administrations and Officers marginally noted for information and guidance.

Ordered also, that a copy of the Resolution be forwarded to the Home Department for information.
