Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 16th August 1876. No. 2,124.

No. 342. Read the following endorsement of the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 7th August 1876, No. 392 :—

From R. B. ELWIN, Esq., Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, to Lieutenant-Colonel J. H. M. SHAW-STEWART, R.E., Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 5th August 1876, No. 800.

I HAVE the honor to enclose a copy of paragraph 12 of the Secretary's letter No. 579, dated the 30th June 1876, from which you will observe that the Directors have appointed Mr. C. E. Phipps, as Senior Assistant Locomotive Superintendent in succession to the late Mr. Boodle, on a salary of £600 per annum, and I request that you will be so good as to communicate to me the sanction of Government for the disbursement to him of salary at the above rate from the date of the Board's letter.

Extract from a letter from the Secretary, Madras Railway Company, No. 579, dated London, the 30th June 1876.

PARA. 12. Adverting to paragraph 2 of 572, in which it was stated that a successor to Mr. Boodle should be selected and sent out as soon as possible, I am instructed to inform you that the Board, upon further consideration and being desirous of rewarding meritorious service, have resolved to appoint Mr. C. E. Phipps, Senior Assistant Locomotive Superintendent, on a salary of £600 per annum. It is desirable that he should enter into a new agreement for a term of four years, and it will also be necessary for him to provide security to the extent of £500. If he is not prepared to lodge with you Government paper or other good security to the above amount, we will arrange to take out a policy with one of the Guarantee Societies in London. The Board are taking steps to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Mr. Phipps.
