Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 31st August 1876. No. 2,336.

No. 736. Read the following letter from Captain L. CONWAY-GORDON, R.E., Examiner of Public Works Accounts, to Major-General G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Fort St. George, 12th August 1876, No. 165-W :—

I HAVE the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Proceedings of Government, No. 1,825, dated 26th July 1876, sanctioning permanent travelling allowance to Mr. Johnston, Assistant Engineer, whilst on duty at Cumbum, and with reference thereto, to point out that, as such an allowance is not provided for in the Travelling Allowance Rules, the sanction of the Supreme Government should be obtained previous to the grant of this allowance.

2. From the papers communicated to me under cover of G.O., No. 1,568, dated 23rd June 1876, it appears that no changes in the Travelling Allowance Rules be made by the local Government without a previous reference to the Government of India.

No. 737. ORDER THEREON, 31st August 1876, No. 2,336.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 46.

THE Examiner of Public Works Accounts will pass Mr. Johnston's travelling allowances under the latter part of Clause I, paragraph 1 of Section III, Chapter IV of the Government of India Code; Mr. Johnston being held to have no temporary head-quarters while employed on his present duties.

Chapter IV
Section III

Para 1.

Clause 1. No travelling allowance shall (except as provided for in Rules III and IV) be granted in any case where an Officer does not proceed to a greater distance than 5 miles beyond the boundary of his station, or from his ordinary residence, permanent or temporary, or standing Camp. In the absence of orders to the contrary from a Local Govt. or Administration, 15 days residence at a place shall be sufficient ground for the Controller to consider that place an Officer's temporary head quarters, but the Controller is not precluded from referring the matter to the Local Govt. or Administration in cases in which he considers that a shorter residence should suffice to constitute the place an Officer's temporary head-quarters.

When an Officer is appointed to the charge of a survey it will rest with the Local Govt. or Administration under which he may be serving to fix his temporary head quarters during the field season, or to decide that he shall have no temporary head
