Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 6th September 1876. No. 2,361.

No. 41. Read the following letter from J. H. TAYLOR, Esq., Lieutenant, R.N.R., Master Attendant, Administrative Department, to the Honorable W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Marine Department, dated Madras, 29th August 1876, No. 5,817:—

REFERRING to the telegram marginally noted, I have the honor to report that Mr. Agar arrived at Madras on the 19th instant, and left for Bangalore on the evening of the 29th idem, having begun work on the 21st.

2. He was put to great inconvenience and considerable expense in leaving Bangalore, where he broke up house, and travelling down to Madras on the public service. While at Madras, he necessarily incurred heavy hotel expenses and carriage hire, for all of which, under the peculiar circumstances of the case, I am respectfully of opinion he should be remunerated. While here he commenced and carried out the preliminaries of the survey to which he was appointed with energy and good-will, and I respectfully recommend that he may receive an honorarium of Rupees 200 for his services, coupled with the trouble and expense he was put to in obeying the orders of His Grace the Governor in Council.

No. 42. ORDER THEREON, 6th September 1876, No. 2,361.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 3.

HIS GRACE the Governor in Council sanctions an honorarium of Rupees 200 to be paid to Mr. Agar in consideration of the trouble and expense he was put to in connection with the survey of the Madras Harbour. The charge will be debited to the works, under instructions from the Examiner.
