Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 28th November 1876. No 3,202.

No 531. Read the following endorsement of the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 24th November 1876, No 577 —

From W. ELDER, Esq, Acting Consulting Physician, Madras Railway, to R B.
ELWIN, Esq, Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, dated Royapooram, 22nd November 1876, No. 348.

I REGRET to have to report the re-appearance of cholera at the Huggry. The Apothecary's statement is herewith enclosed I communicated with the Apothecary and Mr. Wilkinson two days ago on the matter, as I was afraid that the employes would suffer at an early date seeing that the disease was so bad at Bellary. I have also requested Apothecary Ragavulu, formerly of Huggry, but now at Bellary, to look over the encampment and report to me, as well as give Anantaram the benefit of any suggestions relative to the prevention of the spread of the disease.

From ANANTARAM, Apothecary, Madras Railway Company, to W ELDER, Esq, Acting Consulting Physician, Madras Railway Company, Royapooram, dated Huggry Bridge, 20th November 1876, No 80

I BEG leave respectfully to report that driller, the carpenter's son, and a cooly have this morning been attacked by cholera, and they are removed to cholera shed, and they are being treated with spirits of camphor and calomel, brandy and other stimulants, mustard poultices, turpentine embrocations, hot bottles and heated sand, mutton broths, sago congee, &c

2 The houses occupied by them have been fumigated and whitewashed, and a request to whitewash the rest also. This and the neighbouring places are kept clean by daily supervision

The Agent and Manager
Dear Sir,

I regret to have to report the reappearance of Cholera at the Huggery. The Apothecary's statement is herewith enclosed. I communicated with the Apothecary and Mr. Wilkins on two days ago on the matter as I was afraid that the employees would suffer at an early date, seeing that the disease was so bad at Bellary. I have also requested an Apothecary, Rajavooloo formerly of Huggery - but not at Bellary, to look over the encampment and report to me as well as give Anantaram the benefit of any suggestions relative to the prevention of the spread of the disease.

Yours faithfully,
Mr. William Elder
