Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 27th December 1876. No. 3,543.

No. 584. Read the following letter from A. B. SAMPSON, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, (Establishment—General), to Major-General G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Fort William, 18th December 1876, No. 1,728 E—G:—

In reply to your letter No. 1,289, dated 22nd May, I am directed to state that the accidental omission of the names of Messrs. Norfor and Hayne, from the list submitted to the Secretary of State of officers entitled to the more favorable leave rules will be rectified. Both officers were appointed in an eligible grade before 3rd January 1872.

2. With regard to officers appointed after that date, the orders of Her Majesty's Government are, that they must come under the provisions of supplement F of the Civil Leave Code, unless they are appointed for special reasons to exceptional posts, with the sanction of the Secretary of State. Mr. Johnstone, appointed in 1873, named in your letter No. 1,288, dated 22nd May, does not come under this exception, and cannot therefore be included in the list.
