Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 17th February 1876.

No. 315. Read the following letter from Colonel F. J. MOBERLY, R.E., Superintending Engineer, Chingleput, to Major-General G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Camp at Pariapoliem, 7th February 1876, No. 4,375:—

I HAVE the honor to request the sanction of Government to the expenses incurred in prosecuting criminally a maistry named Kistnasawmy Naick, employed in building the Subder Ali channel weir.

2. He was committed to the Sessions Court by the Sub-Magistrate, Streeparum-budur, for making fraudulent entries in his nominal rolls, and for submitting a false account. He was acquitted on the first charge, but convicted on the second, and has been sentenced to eighteen months' rigorous imprisonment, and a fine of Rupees 100, in default of payment of fine to a further period of six months' imprisonment.

3. The expenses incurred are in payment of a Vakeel ... Rs. 16 14 0
for batta to witnesses ... „ 2 10 0
value of stamps ... „ 4 3 0
and for copies of documents
from the Sub-Magistrate's to the Session Court ... „ 55 15 6

Total Rs. 79 10 6

4. Mr. Watkins explains that he employed a Vakeel before the Magistrate, as he was ignorant of Law and Procedure, and was anxious to convict a man guilty, as he felt,
of flagrant fraud.

5. If the fine of Rupees 100 be paid, the Government will more than recover the amount of expenses now asked for.

No. 316. ORDER THEREON, 17th February 1876, No. 438.
