*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
18th March 1876.*

No. 312. Read the following letter from Major J. BEATTY, R.E., District Engineer, Godavery, to Major-General G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Dowlaiswaram, 24th January 1876, No. 3,125 :—

THE CONTROLLER OF PUBLIC WORKS ACCOUNTS having declined to pass full salary to my Writer B. V. Subramaniam without special sanction, I have the honor to report the circumstances of the case for the favorable consideration of Government.

* 1 Controller's letter, No. 143 G. D., of 10th January 1876.
1 Service Register.

* To be returned.

2. Subramaniam entered the Government service in the year 1855, and, as will be seen from his service register herewith enclosed, served continuously in several capacities until August 1867. At that time he held the appointment of Head Writer in the Master Attendant's office at Cocanada, and having in some manner displeased the Master Attendant, he was offered an inferior post in the Marine Office at Madras, and ordered to join at his own expense. He delayed joining, appealed to Government, and received an endorsement to the effect that, unless he accepted the appointment offered him by the Master Attendant, Madras, he would not be again employed in the Marine Department. Subramaniam then intimated his willingness to take up the appointment offered him at Madras, and asked for time to settle his affairs and join; but the Master Attendant at Madras, without even directing him to join forthwith, filled up the appointment.

3. There does not appear to be any evidence that Subramaniam declined to join the post offered him, as stated by the Controller; but that, owing to the delay caused by his appeal, he was dealt with in a summary manner by the Marine Department.

4. In October 1874, I employed him in my office, after ascertaining from his papers, as I considered, that the break in his service, being due to no fault of his, did not disqualify him for further employment. He has since performed the duties of Head Writer in this office and conducted himself to my entire satisfaction. I beg, therefore, that in consideration of his long previous service, and his proved fitness for his present post, Government may be pleased to authorize the Controller to pass the difference of salary that he has disallowed.

No. 313.

ORDER THEREON, 18th March 1876, No. 716.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 18-B.

THE WRITER in question was employed in the Public Works Department from 1st February 1855 to 30th June 1861, when the establishment to which he belonged was abolished. He was permanently re-entrained again on 2nd June 1862 as Head Writer in the Master Attendant's office on a salary of Rupees 20 and was dismissed on 4th June 1867. Being re-instated by G.O., No. 110, of 3rd April 1868, he was on a report of the Assistant Magistrate of Godavery, made on a complaint brought by him, ordered in August 1868 to be transferred to an appointment at Madras, which he refused at first to join. Being informed by Government that they would not again interfere on his behalf, he still delayed joining; and exhausting the patience of the Master Attendant at Madras by asking to be permitted not to join till the end of July 1869, he was informed that his place was filled up.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
18th March 1876.

2. These being the circumstances under which the blank in Venkata Subramaniam's service occurred, His Grace the Governor in Council is not prepared to excuse him from passing the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination.
