Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 26th August 1875 No 206, I have the honor to inform you that persons in the D.P. W. Establishment come under the Ferry Rule quoted, if they are in uniform and are on duty. I think law wear cannot come under "Persons" unless they wear a belt and badge.

With reference to the latter part of Mr. Nicoll's letter to you of the 7th ultimo, No 72, I wish to suggest to you that you should get Government permission to allow your laborers to wear some distinctive dress or badge by which they can be known to be in your service, there would then be no objection to their going across the ferries series without payment. I do not see how it would be possible to give permission to people not wearing some Mark to go free. We should have one saying he was one of your lascar.
