Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 24th March 1876.

No. 372. Read the following endorsement of the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 17th March 1876, No. 142 :—

From R. B. ELWIN, Esq., Agent and Manager of the Madras Railway Company, to Lieutenant-Colonel J. H. M. SHAW-STEWART, R.E., Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 14th March 1876, No. 253.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Government, that Mr. E. C. Boodle, the First Assistant to the Locomotive Superintendent, has in consequence of the feeble state of his health been obliged to tender his resignation of his appointment, and I have accordingly provided him with a passage from Madras to Southampton.

2. Mr. Boodle embarked yesterday in the P. and O. Steamer Indus, and as the Locomotive Superintendent informs me that he is much pressed for assistance in his department, I have to-day telegraphed to the Board of Directors informing them of the resignation and departure of Mr. Boodle, and requesting them to send out a successor, a course which will, I trust, meet with the approval of His Grace the Governor in Council.

SUBMITTED for the information and approval of Government.

2. Mr. Boodle entered the Company's service as Second Assistant to the Locomotive Superintendent on the 1st April 1871, on a salary of £ 450 per annum.

3. In G.O., No. 1,335, dated 14th May 1872, an acting allowance of Rs. 100 per mensem was granted to him during the absence of the Deputy Locomotive Superintendent.

4. Under G.O., No. 910, dated 24th March 1873, he drew Rupees 600 per mensem from April 1873 to January 1874, when the Locomotive Superintendent was acting as Agent and Manager in addition to his own duties.

5. In G.O., No. 1,234, dated 8th May 1874, he was appointed to act for Mr. Barton Wright, when the latter officer proceeded to England on sick leave.

6. In G.O., No. 1,404, dated 27th May 1874, Mr. Boodle was appointed permanently First Assistant to the Locomotive Superintendent on a salary of £600 per annum.

7. On Mr. Wright's retirement from the service Mr. Boodle continued to act as Locomotive Superintendent until the arrival of Mr. Trevithick from England.

8. Mr. Boodle's health has completely broken down, and Mr. Elwin has, in my opinion, exercised a wise discretion in providing him with a passage to England.

SIR,

I have the honour to report for the information of Government that Mr E. C. Roodle, the first Assistant to the Locomotive Superintendent, has in consequence of the feeble state of his health been obliged to tender his resignation of his appointment, and I have accordingly provided him with a passage from Madras to Southampton.

Mr Roodle embarked yesterday in the P. and O. Steamer 'Indus', and as the Locomotive Superintendent informs me that he is much pressed for assistance in his Department, I have today telegraphed to the Board of Directors informing them of the resignation and departure of Mr Roodle, and requesting them to send out a successor, a course which will I trust meet with the approval of His Grace the Governor in Council.

I have the honour to be,
Your most obedient servant.
