Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 12th January 1877. No. 107.

No. 209. Read the following letter from Major H. M. VIBART, R.E., Officiating District Engineer, Presidency, to Major-General G. W. WALKER, R.E., Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, dated Fort St. George, 6th January 1877, No. 5,139:—

With reference to G.O., No. 50, dated 5th January 1877, I have the honor to point out that there appears no necessity for a camp for the Wudders, as they have their own huts in and about Madras it is believed, and in this case the bridge across the Adyar will also be superfluous.

No. 210. ORDER THEREON, 12th January 1877, No. 107.

CIVIL WORKS, No. 12.

THE Government will not insist on the Wudders being moved from their own huts into camps. But should any necessity arise for locating them on the work, they must be subjected to sanitary control.
