10th April 1877. No. 1,238.*

No. 261. Read the following endorsement of the Government of India, No. 93
C W—I:—

Despatch from the Government of India, Public Works Department, (Civil Works, Irrigation) to the Most Honorable the MARQUIS OF SALISBURY, Secretary of State for India, dated Fort William, 28th March 1877, No. 40, Public Works.

MY LORD MARQUIS.—We have received a petition from certain inhabitants of Mylapore in Madras, praying that the Adyar and Cooum Junction Canal Project may be abandoned.

2. We have no knowledge at present of the reasons which have led the Madras Government to undertake the project at the present time, but we have received a telegram from that Government to the effect that a report, with full details, is being prepared for submission to us.

3. On receipt of this report we will communicate to Her Majesty's Government our views on the matter; but, in the mean time, we are informed that a copy of the petition has been submitted to your Lordship direct by the Government of Madras.

Copy forwarded to the Government of Madras in reply to its telegram of the 15th instant.
