No. 394. Read the following letter from Major H. M. VIBART, R.E., District Engineer, Bangalore, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, dated Bangalore, 7th April 1877, No. 4 :—

I HAVE the honor to inform you that the house I am now occupying as my office is in a most dangerous condition. The roofs in many parts very unsafe. A part of the stable has already fallen in and other parts of the roof of the house are ready to fall at any moment. I find I cannot obtain a suitable house for my office under 100 Rupees a month. I require considerable accommodation, and unless I am content with a house which is out of repair, I cannot get a house under 100 Rupees a month. I have frequently asked the owner of the house I at present occupy as office to repair it, but nothing is done, and the house is now I consider in many parts dangerous to life. I therefore write to request permission to move into another house the rent of which is Rupees 100 per mensem. I may mention that for the house which I myself occupy (though not a large one) I pay a rent of 85 Rupees.

No. 395. ORDER THEREON, 17th April 1877, No. 1,309.
