To Consulting Engineer for Railways Madras.

Bellary April 1st 1877.

Sir
In forwarding the Return called for in para 4 of your N^o 429 dated 30th March I have the honor to explain that in accordance with instructions from the Government of Bombay, and the verbal wishes of Sir Richard Temple, I have for the present concentrated the whole of my staff on the Madras portion of the Railway: the rank and salaries entered in my return are those enjoyed previous to appointment to this famine work.
I believe it is contemplated to give a higher rate of pay to officers so employed -

The Bombay Government has directed me to lay out work as soon as
