SIR,

In compliance with instructions issued in para 2 of Order of Government, in the Public Works Department, N^o 645 N^o of 31st August last, I have the honor to state that, although lists of passengers are furnished to us by Agents of vessels, they would not be safe to make use of for purposes of audit, as there is no guarantee that the parties whose names are thus given, before clearing the vessel actually embarked. I would respectfully remark that the suggestion of Captain Begbie, that all Companies providing passage should obtain a certificate signed by each officer that he has actually
