Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
17th January 1877. No. 142.

Explanation of necessity for modifications applied for.

THE embankment from the Rajahmundry to Purushottapatam is an incomplete work of last year. There was a provision in the preliminary issue of the Budget for 1876-77 for this work, but the Government of India disallowed it. Before these orders were communicated to the District Engineer an expenditure of Rupees 7,487 was incurred. This modification is intended to provide funds to cover the expenditure.
