Proceedings of the Madras Government

Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue dated 26th
October 1877 N 14,889 on L.O. Revenue Department dated 4th October 1877, N 6033, referring to Board for remarks, Proceedings Public Works Department on the subject of the provision of funds for Vedartern and East Coast Canals.

The Board observe that the Current year's Special Local Fund Budget contains a provision of Rupees 8,000 out of the Lianal and Ferry Fund of the Tanjore District to be utilized for the purposes detailed in para 27 of the Boards Proceedings dated 25th January 1877 N 301, which are here repeated for easy reference.

1. Maintenance of the Vedartern Canal	Rupees including the portion expended in 1875	6750
2. Minor Repairs to Ferry Boats	600.
3. Establishment	80
4. Miscellaneous	570
	8,000

It is the first of these items that is alluded to in the Extract from the Tanjore District Engineer's letter furnished with this.
This

This allotment is for the ordinary maintenance of the whole Canal. The provision made in the Imperial Budget appears from L.C. P.W.D. 3rd July 1876 N 1670 to have been intended for deepening a particular section of it, and not for general maintenance. Both allotments are probably necessary. The ordinary maintenance of the Canal has been met from Canal and Ferry Funds since 1874-75.

Order thereon 1st November 1877 N 6224.

Communicated to the Public Works Department with reference to L.C. in that Department 10 September 1877 N 2650.
