to learn his work would be next to useless on a work like the restoration of the Chinnamputty tank, sanctioned in G.O., No. 2,927, dated 2nd November 1876, as a Famine Relief Work, a pensioned Overseer T. Mooniappah Moodeliar has been appointed by Mr. Norfor under the impression that the provisions of Section 95, Rule 3, of the Civil Pension Code, authorizes his re-employment in a purely temporary capacity.

2. Adverting to paragraph 3 of the Examiner's letter, No. 131 S.L., dated 15th December 1876, herein enclosed, I beg to state that previous to Mooniappah Moodeliar's appointment, it was ascertained that he is in the enjoyment of sound health. In fact, he is discharging the duties entrusted to him in a satisfactory manner.

3. I also beg to forward, for your perusal, the Examiner's Disallowance List, and request you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to enable the Examiner to pass full salary of a 3rd-grade Overseer to Mooniappah Moodeliar under Section 95, Rule 3, of the Civil Pension Code.

With reference to your official memorandum, No. 144, of the 14th November 1876, I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to inform me whether it is intended that Mooniappah Moodelly shall retain his pension in addition to his pay, subject to the conditions laid down in Section 92 of the Civil Pension Code.

2. Having also in view the orders contained in Section 95, Rule 3, of the Civil Pension Code, and the circumstance that Mooniappah Moodelly has now been on the Pension Establishment nearly eleven years, and that he will shortly close his sixty-first year, I request that application be made to Government for sanction to his temporary re-employment in the Public Works Department.

3. It is presumed that measures have been taken for satisfying yourself, with reference to Section 93 of the Civil Pension Code, that Mooniappah Moodelly, who was pensioned on the grounds that he was "suffering from paralysis and unfit for employment in the Public Works Department," has regained his health.
