GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

7th June 1877, No. 203 W.

General.
Establishment.

Read the following papers :—

No. 52. From Major J. BEATTY, R.E., Officiating Superintending Engineer, Godavery District, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Dowlaisweram, 22nd December 1876, No. 2,766.

P. SUBBAROYUDU, a Sub-divisional Officer's Writer in the Western Delta Division of the district, having on more than one occasion been recommended to me by the Mr. G. T. Walch, Lieutenant Dorward, and Mr. W. B. deWinton. Range Officer, as well as by his Sub-divisional Officers, with a view to his case being brought to the notice of Government and sanction obtained for his being exempted from passing the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination, I have the honor to report the following circumstances for favorable consideration :—

From Subbaroyudu's Service Register herewith enclosed it will be seen that he entered the Government service in the year 1854, i.e., five years before the Examination Rules came into force and has since been in continuous Government employ.

From the several testimonials given him, which have been copied into the Service Register, Subbaroyudu appears to have worked to the entire satisfaction of all the officers under whom he has served, and being now an old and deserving servant of Government, I beg to recommend him for exemption.

Subbaroyudu's case is similar to that of the Assistant Accountant in No. 1 Range, Trichinopoly District, which was favorably disposed of in G.O. No. 1,125 of the 21st April 1875.

No. 52-A. From the same Officer, dated Camp at Dowlaisweram, 25th May 1877, No. 613.

With reference to your office endorsement No. 47 of the 9th January 1877, on the Service Book of Sub-divisional Writer Pusulury Subbaroyudu, I have had the entries in the book duly verified and have now the honor to return it.

No. 53. ORDER THEREON, 7th June 1877, No. 203 W.

THE Governor in Council is pleased to exempt Pusulury Subbaroyudu from the Uncovenanted Civil Service Test.
