General.
Establishment.

Read the following paper:—

No. 149. From Major J. BEATTY, R.E., Officiating Superintending Engineer, Godavery District, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, dated Camp, Dowlaishweram, 4th December 1877, No. 2,851.

With reference to G.O., No. 1,642 W, of 13th November 1877, I have the honor to report the further proceedings in the case of criminal breach of trust by Sub-Overseer Wilkins.

2. That case, as I have already reported, was committed in the first instance for trial by the Sessions Judge, and came before Mr. Brandt on 6th ultimo.

3. Mr. Brandt was of opinion that according to the Code of Criminal Procedure the prisoner having pleaded that he was a European British subject, the District Court could not try the case, and he accordingly sent it back to the committing Magistrate, Mr. Kelsall, with an order that he was to send it up for trial by the High Court.

4. This Mr. Kelsall has now done, and as I was summoned as a witness before the District Court, he has bound me over to appear at the High Court on the first day of the next Criminal Sessions of that Court, which, I understand, will be early in February 1878.

5. I have now the honor to request permission to proceed to Madras for that purpose by the last steamer in January 1878, that will bring me to Madras in good time for the Sessions.

No. 150. ORDER THEREON, 17th December 1877, No. 2,132 W.

PERMISSION to proceed to Madras is granted.

3. Mr. Brandt was of opinion that according to the Code of Criminal Procedure, the prisoner having pleaded that he was a European British subject, the District Court could not try the case, and he accordingly sent
it

it back to the committing Magistrate Mr. Kelall, with an order that he was to send it up certified by the High Court.

4. This Mr. Kelall has now done,
and as I was summoned as a witness before the District Court, he has found me over to appear at the High Court on the first day of the next criminal Sessions at that Court, which, I understand, will be early in February 1878.
5. I have now the honor to request permission to proceed to Madras for that purpose by the last steamer in January 1878, that will bring me to Madras
in good time for the Sessions.
