2. The charges defrayed by Mr. Bicknell for the conveyance of one horse were admitted under G.O., No. 242, of 25th January 1877, but the Sub-Engineer claims reimbursement of the expense incurred by him for the other horse also. A copy of the order produced by him in support of the claim is enclosed.

3. As the Sub-Engineer has actually incurred the charges he refers to, I beg to recommend that the Examiner of Public Works Accounts be authorized to admit the same as a special case.

Memorandum from the Sub-Engineer in charge of Raidroog Famine Relief Works, to Lieutenant W. JACKSON, Executive Officer in charge of Bellary Division, dated Raidroog, 4th May 1877, No. 20.

With reference to his endorsement on this office docket No. 6, dated 17th April 1877, begs to state that the orders regarding the conveying of horses to this Presidency were received by the undersigned in Bengal previous to the issuing of the G.O., No. 242, dated 25th January 1877, in accordance with which the undersigned acted, and this order has been forwarded to the Range Officer in original, consequently would be glad if he would make arrangements for submitting the balance of the amount incurred for the conveying of horses, for which a receipt from the Railway Company has been forwarded.
