General
Account.

Read the following paper —

No 162. Proceedings of the Madras Government in the Revenue Department, dated 7th June 1877, No 1,916 A.

Read Proceedings of the Public Works Department, dated 15th May 1877,
No 66 W, passing orders regarding the incidence of expenditure on Famine Relief Works during the year 1876-77.

It is not clear what is meant by "Public Works Works and Repairs" in paragraph 8 of the Examiner's letter recorded in the above Proceedings, but all expenditure by the Civil Department will be accounted for to the Accountant-General. Rules relating to the method in which the accounts of the expenditure should be submitted were drawn up by the Accountant-General and Revenue Board and issued with the approval of Government as far back as the 22nd March, and the submission of the completion certificates prescribed in paragraph 3, Clause 5, of those rules will enable the Accountant-General and the Examiner of Public Works Accounts to ascertain the proportions of the expenditure on works eventually debitable to the several heads of service

2 In distributing the charges incurred by the Civil Department connected with Relief Works, the Examiner will be guided by the principles laid down in Public Works Department G O, No 3,410, of 14th December 1876
