that Mrs Caldwell has been granted free passages to Calcutta; and her expenses to Dárjiling paid.

An application has already been made on her behalf to the Government of Bengal, ~~praying~~ for the grant of a small gratuity.
2. The circumstances of her her husband's death, though no doubt exceptional, were not so exceptional as to render it at all likely that the Govt. of India would accede to her present request - which it is proposed to reject -
