Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 2nd February 1877. No. 367.

No. 104. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel C. S. HEARN, Inspector-General of Police, to Major-General G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 31st January 1877, No. 448:—

I HAVE the honor to submit for the early sanction of Government the accompanying estimate amounting to Rupees 70, together with a letter* in original, for the construction by departmental arrangement of a temporary station-house at Mathagoputty, Madura District.

2. It will be seen from the Superintendent's letter that the want of a suitable building for use as a station-house at the place is much felt.

3. Funds for this work have been already proposed for transfer from the North Arcot District, vide my letter No. 447, dated 31st instant.

From Captain S. KILGOUR, Superintendent of Police, Madura, to the Assistant Inspector-General of Police, Madras, dated Madura, 23rd January 1877, No. 21.

With reference to paragraph 2 of Circular Memorandum No. 1, dated 6th January 1877, Public Works Code, Part I, page 1, of 1877, I have the honor to forward an estimate for Rupees 70 for a temporary station-house at Mathagoputty in 2 or Tripatore Division.

2. There was at the place a thatched building for the station-house; this had tumbled down. An estimate for Rupees 50 for repair was sent in August 1876, but sanction was refused by Chief Office in Memorandum No. 3,989, dated 30th August 1876.

3. A station-house is very much wanted at this place; no private building can be rented, none being available, and the village being two miles away. At present a police hut is used for the station-house.

4. I request that early sanction may be sent for the construction of this temporary thatched station, and funds allotted for the purpose.

No. 105. ORDER THEREON, 2nd February 1877, No. 367.

As I read the rules the estimate requires the sanction of Govt. being for a separate work
not an "alteration" or
"improvement." The proper course would have been
to transfer the proposal
to the Judicial Dept.
But as the sanction has been given and passed,
the order may issue.
