Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 3rd February 1877. No. 390.

No. 148. Read the following letter from W. B. LEGGATT, Esq., A.I.C.E., Officiating District Engineer, Bellary, to Major-General G. W. WALKER, R.E., Chief Engineer and Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Bellary, 19th January 1877, No. 4,333 :—

I HAVE the honor to submit for your orders the accompanying application from Assistant Engineer Mr. Cotton for an advance of a month's pay, Rupees 450.

From C. V. S. COTTON, Esq., Assistant Engineer, to W. B. LEGGATT, Esq., A.I.C.E., District Engineer, Bellary, dated 17th January 1877, No. B-3.

I HAVE the honor, in answer to your demi-official of this date, to request you will permit me to remain at Bellary until the arrival of my horses and camp, owing to their not having arrived as reported to you in my letter of this date (No. B-2.)

2. I have also to request that you will grant me an advance of one month's pay (Rupees 450) to enable me to proceed to Cuddapah.

3. I have received an advance of two months' pay (Rupees 900), but it will not cover my travelling expenses with my camp and horses, as well as self and family.

4. I herewith forward a copy of my last pay certificate.

No. 149. ORDER THEREON, 3rd February 1877, No. 390.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 8.

An advance of two months' pay having already been made to Mr. Cotton, the further advance now asked for cannot be granted. There is no objection however to an immediate payment on account towards the travelling allowances due for the journey on transfer from Bengal to Madras.

2. The Examiner will arrange accordingly.

12.1.77

To Mr. Cotton has already received an advance of two months pay -
If this further advance be made to him, it should, I think, be at once recovered in part by the stoppage of the travelling allowances due to Mr. Cotton for the journey from Bengal to Madras on transfer -
That is, I do not think any further advance should be made except, so to speak, as a payment on account towards the travelling allowance due to Mr. Cotton.
