Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 7th February 1877. No. 426.

No. 216. Read the following endorsement of the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 1st February 1877, No. 74:—

From R. B. ELWIN, Esq., Agent and Manager, Madras Railway Company, to Lieut.-Colonel J. H. M. SHAW-STEWART, R.E., Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 30th January 1877, No. 196.

ADVERTING to the discussion which took place at the meeting of the Committee held in my Office yesterday, I have the honor to forward herewith, for submission to Government, a copy of the Locomotive Superintendent's letter of the 15th instant, No. 42, together with the petition of the widow of the late G. F. James, who was employed as a carriage trimmer in this Company's service for nearly 21 years, and died of cholera on the 10th instant.

2. The Committee recommended that a gratuity of Rupees 200, equal to three months' of her late husband's pay, should be made to the widow, and I hope that the Government will be pleased to confirm this.

3. It was elicited at the meeting yesterday that James, though he had been so long in the service, had not endeavoured to make provision for his family by joining the Provident Fund, otherwise the Committee would have recommended a larger gratuity.

From F. H. TREVITHICK, Esq., Locomotive Superintendent, to R. B. ELWIN, Esq., Agent and Manager, Madras Railway Company, dated Madras, 15th January 1877, No. 42.

I FORWARD for your kind consideration the enclosed petition,* for a gratuity, from the widow of the late G. F. James, carriage trimmer in this department, who died of cholera on the 10th instant.

* Dated 15th January 1877.

2. James was employed first in May 1856, and has been in the service of the Company nearly 21 years; he was a very good workman and an exceptionally hard-working, steady, and reliable man; his wages were Rupees 2-8-0 per day.

3. I have much pleasure in recommending this as a thoroughly deserving case, which may perhaps be met from the "Sick and Allowance Fund."

From Mrs. JOHANNA JAMES, to F. H. TREVITHICK, Esq., Locomotive Superintendent, Madras Railway Company, dated Madras, 15th January 1877.

I beg leave most respectfully to bring to your kind notice the death of my husband, trimmer in the Madras Railway Company for upwards of 22 years, who died on the 10th instant, leaving myself and children quite destitute and unprovided. I have two sons-in-law who are working in the above Company, but they have families of their own, and their pay being very small it leaves me little hope of any help from them. I therefore beg, kind sir, you will take my painful case into your deep and painful consideration, and from his long and faithful services rendered to the Company you will be pleased to make me and my orphan children a small provision, whereby we may pass a short time till my son is able to find an earning. In doing this benevolent act of charity I and my orphan children shall ever pray.

SUBMITTED for the favorable consideration of Government.

My dear Sir,

Dated
14th January 1877

I forward for your kind consideration the enclosed petition for a gratuity from the widow of the late G. F. James carriage trimmer in this department who died of cholera on the 10th instant.

James was employed first in May 1855 and has been in the service of the Company nearly 21 years; he was a very good workman and an exceptionally hard working, steady and reliable man. His wages were Rs 2/5 per day.

I have much pleasure in recommending this as a thoroughly deserving case which may

 Sir, Col. J. H. M. Shaw Stewart

Consulting Engineer for Railways.

Sir,

Referring to the discussion which took place at the meeting of the Committee held in my Office yesterday, I have the honour to forward herewith for submission to Government a copy of the Locomotive Superintendent's letter of the 15th instant at 45 together with the Petition of the widow of the late H. J. James, who was employed as a Carriage trimmer in the Company's service for nearly 21 years, and died of Cholera on the 10th instant.

The Committee
 recommended that a gratuity of Rs 200, equal to three months of her late husband's pay should be made to the widow—and I hope that the Government will be pleased to consider this.

It was decided at the meeting yesterday that Lamar, though he had been so long in the service had not endeavored to make provision for his family by joining the Provident Fund, otherwise the Committee would have recommended a larger gratuity.
