7th February 1877.

The accompanying letters, No. 1,223, dated 25th November 1876, with enclosure, and No. 250, dated 7th February 1877, from the Agent of the Madras Railway, are submitted for the information of Government with reference to their Proceedings No. 2,973, dated 4th November 1876.

2. In the statement showing the present strength and cost of the control establishment of the Locomotive Department, the Railway Authorities have included the salary drawn by Mr. Phipps while a Fitter; but this item has been struck out by this office, as it vitiates the comparison called for by Government.

3. After this correction has been made, the present cost of the control establishment of the Locomotive Department compares favorably with its total cost at the period of Mr. Collinson's retirement from the Company's service. The prospective cost remains the same.

4. The prospective increase to Mr. Phipps' salary, shown in the statement has reference to the Board's scheme for grading the officers of the Locomotive Department, in accordance with the system proposed for the Traffic Department recorded in the Proceedings of Government, No. 3,138, dated 21st November 1876, and now sanctioned by the Government of India.
