Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 12th January 1877. No. 61.

No. 120. * ORDER THEREON, 8th January 1877, No. 61.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. G-A.

The Public Works Staff of the Coimbatore District cannot exactly be said to be below its ordinary strength, seeing that it is only its "extra Officer and extra Overseer" that have been drafted off to some remote districts.

2. The unexpended sanctioned of the district cannot now be large; and were it not for irrigation and other relief operations, work would be slack rather than otherwise. The means at the disposal of the Government must be reserved, and such extra expenditure as may be required in Coimbatore provided locally by appointment of temporary lower subordinates.
