To The Asst. Inspector General of Madras Police
Madras

Sir

I have the honor to forward herewith an Estimate prepared by the D. P. W. Department for the reconstruction of the Asst. Superintendent's Office at Parvatipoor and approved of by Major Woods the present District Engineer (Vide his letter 82845 attached 4.7.77)

This building as reported in my letter 8262^{20.4.76} has been unoccupied for about two years and I recently in order to save its walls, had the old roof removed.

The Asst. Superintendent now holds his Office in a portion of the Jail at Parvatipoor, but as I understood that the building

Vizagapalām

building is about to be repaired and enlarged for the accommodation of hill prisoners, we shall be obliged to vacate that portion which we now occupy and the Asst. Superint. will have to rent a building for the purpose. I therefore earnestly request early sanction for this estimate amounting to Rs. 385-00 and that the amount be obtained by special sanction from Government or by transfer from other Districts.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your Obedt. Servant
