Travelling Allowances for the families of Barrack Sergeants.

Read the following Military Department General Order:—

General Order No. 95 of 2nd February 1876.

IN continuation of Government General Order, No. 866, of 7th September 1870, His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to authorize the grant of a free passage by bullock-train if available and preferred, or an allowance at the rate of 2 Annas a mile to meet the cost of the conveyance by road of the wife and family of a Non-commissioned Officer of the unattached list or in departmental employ, who may be ordered on permanent duty to a station at least five miles distant.

2. Free conveyance under such circumstances is already allowed by General Order, No. 239, of 24th October 1866, for such portion of the journey as may have to be travelled by rail.

3. Should such Non-commissioned Officer when required under the rule in clause III of Government General Order, No. 866, of the 7th September 1870, to proceed by dāk, or any other expeditious mode of travelling, other than by bullock train, desire to take his family with him, he may do so, but any extra expense he may thereby incur, if in excess of the allowance of 2 Annas a mile, will not be borne by the State.

RESOLUTION.—The Government of India is pleased to extend the provisions of the above General Order to Barrack Sergeants employed in the Public Works Department.

ORDERED that a copy of the above Resolution be forwarded to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, for information.
