Letter from the Government of the Punjab, Public Works Department, Irrigation Branch, No. 2,718 E—I of 26th June 1877.

RESOLUTION.—Under existing rules Warrant Officers, not holding honorary commissions, serving in the Public Works Department and their families are entitled to free passage by rail to the port of embarkation when going to Europe on sick leave, and also to their stations on return to India, but no provision is made for the carriage of luggage.

As those officers are not at liberty to draw mileage for the journeys, but are furnished with certificates which secure them seats in the train, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to rule that the military regulations (Part I, Division II, Section III, paragraph 1,501 of the Pay Code for India) under which a Warrant Officer, not holding an honorary commission, is entitled to free conveyance by rail of a certain amount of baggage of himself and family, shall be applied to Warrant Officers of the same class serving in the Public Works Department.

The allowance to be carried free is—

For the Warrant Officer himself	...	...	...	160 lbs. or 2 mds.
For his wife	...	...	...	120 " or 1½ "
For each child	...	...	...	20 " or ¼ "
