Account.

Read the following paper:—

No. 82. Despatch from the Most Honorable the Secretary of State for India.
Public Works, INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
No. 20. 6th December 1877.

MY LORD DUKE,—In reply to your Grace's letter No. 39, of the 8th October, I transmit herewith copy of a report* by the Accountant of this Office relative to the supply of statements showing the payments made in this country for famine stores and for the Dowlaishweram and Presidency Workshops, together with the statements therein referred to.

I have, &c.,
SALISBURY.

His Excellency the Most Noble
The Governor in Council, Fort St. George.

Copy Report by the Accountant, India Office, dated 13th November 1877.

A "statement of payments in England on account of stores and freight and of invoices despatched to India relating to the expenditure consequent on the famine in Madras up to the 30th September 1877 inclusive" is forwarded for transmission to Madras in accordance with paragraph 1 of Madras Public Works letter No. 39, dated 8th October 1877. Should any future payments on this account be made, statements will be forwarded to Madras as well as to the Government of India.

With regard to the non-transmission of store statements referred to in paragraph 2 of abovementioned Public Works letter, a "statement of payments in England on account of stores and freight and of invoices despatched to India relating to Dowlaishweram Workshops from 1st January to 30th September 1877" is also forwarded for transmission to Madras, and care will be taken that the Madras Government shall be duly furnished with statements of any future payments on this account. Payments on account of "Presidency Workshops" have been included in the statements of "Payments in England on account of stores and freight and of invoices despatched to India relating to Provincial and Local Funds, Madras Public Works," which statements have been forwarded monthly to Madras as well as to the Government of India.

13th November 1877.
