No. 163-A. From Major L. CONWAY-GORDON, R.E., Examiner of Public Works Accounts, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Chepauk, 11th April 1878, No. 13 W.

With reference to your endorsement, No. 1,584, dated 29th March 1878, I have the honor to forward, for the information of Government, a copy of a letter received from Mr. H. J. R. DeSalis, Assistant Examiner, regarding his arrival from furlough.

Copy of a letter from the Assistant Examiner, Public Works Accounts, to the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, dated 8th April 1878.

With reference to the Government of India's letter to the Madras Government, No. 83 E—A, of the 20th March 1878, I have the honor to inform you that in October 1877, when on furlough in England, I applied to the Secretary of State and obtained his permission to return to India, on the understanding that it was to rest with the authorities in India to decide as to the cancellation of any unexpired portion of my furlough. This was reported for the information of the Government of India in a letter addressed from England to the Accountant-General, Public Works Department, about the 25th November 1877. I left England and arrived at Madras on the 1st January 1878, with a view of spending some of the remaining portion of my furlough in India, my furlough not expiring until the 21st March 1878. On the 7th February 1878 I received orders from the Accountant-General, Public Works Department, to join your office as Assistant Examiner in the Famine Branch, and accordingly relieved Mr. Wilson, in this department on the afternoon of the 9th idem.

2. Under these circumstances, I request you will be good enough to recommend that my stay at Madras from 1st January to 9th February 1878 inclusive may be reckoned as furlough in India, and that the unused part of my leave may be cancelled by a notification in the Gazette of India to the effect that I have returned from furlough on the afternoon of 9th February, vide Rule 5, Section 37, of the Civil Leave Code.
