Read the following paper :—

No. 246. Endorsement of the Surgeon-General, Indian Medical Department, dated Fort St. George, 11th April 1878, No. 221.

From Surgeon-Major W. H. HARRIS, M.D., Superintendent of the Lying-in Hospital, Madras, to the Deputy Surgeon-General, Indian Medical Department, Presidency and Northern Districts, dated Madras, 9th April 1878, No. 2.

I HAVE the honor to forward a demi-official from the Consulting Architect to Government, dated 6th instant, stating that the laying on of the Municipal water to the Lying-in Hospital was only provisionally sanctioned when the estimates were passed, and that no pipe was provided for the dispensary, G.O., No. 1,046, of 27th March 1877.

2. As water is indispensable for use in the dispensary, which is to be opened on the 1st proximo, and as the cost of taking it in from the main which is close by, is only Rupees 150, I request you will have the goodness to obtain the necessary sanction to the pipe being laid down at once.

3. This will in no way affect the plan of the water service proposed by the Consulting Architect for the hospital buildings.
