GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

22nd May 1878, No. 2,255 W.

General.
Establishment.

Read the following paper:—

No. 266. From Lieutenant-Colonel J. BEATTY, R.E., Superintending Engineer, Godavery, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, dated Dowlaishweram, 10th May 1878, No. 405.

I HAVE the honor to recommend G. Nagabhushanam, a clerk in my office, for exemption from passing the Uncovenanted Civil Service Test.

2. My predecessor on two occasions* recommended Nagabhushanam for exemption, and I would not have troubled Government again with the matter but that the information on which the case was decided at that time appears to have been imperfect.

3. From the papers Nagabhushanam has produced I observe that he was first employed as writer under the late Lieutenant W. C. Hamond, R.E., in 1856, and was thrown out of employ on that officer's removal to South Arcot in 1857. From August 1857 to February 1860 he held temporary posts under Sub-Engineer Viranna Rai Bahadur. In February 1860, Nagabhushanam took employment in the Upper Godavery and remained there till March 1869. Mr. Vanstavern has made up his service register from the records of the Upper Godavery, and states that Nagabhushanam's name first appears on the permanent pay list of the Upper Godavery, from 1st May 1864.

4. Mr. Vanstavern also certifies that in 1869 Nagabhushanam obtained one month's leave which was gazetted. During that leave Nagabhushanam tendered his resignation of the appointment in the Upper Godavery with a view to obtaining employment in the Lower Godavery, and he took up his new appointment in the District Engineer's office from 21st April 1869. His resignation in the Upper Godavery was accepted from 1st April 1869.

5. He appears, therefore, to have been in permanent employ, with the exception of a short break of twenty days in April 1859, from 1st March 1864; and if the previous Government Orders are not considered an insuperable bar to the case being reconsidered, I trust Government will be pleased to exempt Nagabhushanam from passing the Uncovenanted Service Test on the ground of his long and good service.

No. 267. ORDER THEREON, 22nd May 1878, No. 2,255 W.

It is observed that the examination rules are applicable to all those who were not in the Government service on the 1st January 1859. Nagabhushanam was not so employed prior to this date. There is nothing, therefore, special in his case which could not be alleged in numerous others. The concession sought cannot be granted.

SIR,

Respectfully

I have the honor to recommend
G. Nagabhushanam a Clerk in my Office for exemption from passing the Uncovenanted Civil Service Test—
G.O. Nos. 3346 and 139 of 2. My predecessor on two occasions 18th October/69 recommended Nagabhushanam for and 12th Dec. exemption and I would not have — many 1870.— troubled Government again with the matter but that the information on which the case was decided at that time appears to have been imperfect employ on that officer's removal to South Arcot in 1857. From August 1857 to February 1860 he held temporary posts under Sub Engineer Vira-ma Rai Bahadur. In February 1860 Nagabhushanam took employment in the Upper Godavery and remained there till March 1869.

Mr Vanstaern has made up his service Register from the records of the Upper Godavery and states that Nagabhushanam's name first appears on the permanent pay list of the Upper Godavery from 1st May 1864-4. Mr Vanstaern also certifies that in 1869 Nagabhushanam obtained one month's leave which was gazetted. During that leave Nagabhushanam tendered his resignation of the appointment in the Upper Godavery with a view to obtaining employment in the Lower Godavery and he took up his new appointment in the District Engineer's Office from
