I HAVE the honor to submit the accompanying correspondence for the consideration and orders of His Grace the Governor in Council

2. Third-class Hospital Assistant G Francis, No 1,117, was placed under the orders of the Collector of Kurnool in May 1877 and continued to do Famine duty in that district until the 23rd November last. On that date his services were made over to the District Engineer, Kurnool, who ordered the Hospital Assistant to hold himself in readiness for duty in Cumbum. While awaiting final orders Francis was attacked with fever and placed himself under the treatment of the Zillah Surgeon. His illness continued from the 25th November 1877 to the 4th February 1878, and on recovery it was found that the District Engineer, having no need of his services, had returned him to Madras.

3. From the correspondence it would appear that the District Engineer has admitted only half pay to the Hospital Assistant for the period he was under treatment, but I have the honor to state, for the information of His Grace the Governor in Council, that under the Reorganisation
